

Arts in the City Arts in the Sanctuary Presents...

CONVERGING LIVES
feb 15 7pm

a mixed media group show exhibition runs until march 15

Arts in the City Arts in the Sanctuary Presents...

music

feb 23 7pm
$15

Tarkin

...takes North American folk traditions from across the spectrum and blends them together to create a sound that's folk music with a West Coast flair. Sometimes irreverent, often thoughtful, always entertaining, Tarkin's original and traditional songs encompass a cross-genre acoustic folk style.

www.tarkin.ca

James Lamb and the Liabilities

...a six piece folk ensemble that uses cello, accordian, wiessenborne, guitar, drums and three-part harmony to create beautifully woven baskets to get lost in. "A symphonic experience, the songwriting is peerless and completely catchy..."

K.C Left Hip Magazine

www.myspace.com/jameslamb

Adam Thomas

...a trained musician with the heart of a folk artist, Adam writes and plays music whose influences span many centuries and many genres. Adam has performed with many of the world's best musicians in New York, Vancouver and all over North America. He has written songs and gathered musicians specifically for this evening and the theme of 'Converging Lives.'

<http://myspace.com/adamrobertthomas>

to reserve tickets:

phone: 604-871-4341

online: artsinthecity.com

all events held at:

Grace Vancouver Church
1696 w. 7th Ave. (7th + Pine St.)
Vancouver B.C.